The First and Second wards will meet at the court house, and the Third and Fourth wards at the city hall. Candidates for aldermen will be nominated in all the wards as follows:

First Ward—One for the short term and one for the long term.

Second Ward—One for the long term.

Third Ward—One for the long term.

Fourth Ward—One for the long term.

Per order City Central Committee.

E. L. HUNGTON, Chairman.

A. SUTTON, Second Ward.
F. W. HOWBERT, Third Ward.
E. G. PERKINS, Fourth Ward.

At the Baptist church the pastor, Rev. Richard Montague, will preach to day at 11 a. m.

Mr. H. T. McNeal, of Denver, of the law firm of Wells, McNeal & Taylor is at The Antlers.

The police magistrate yesterday fined a man for leaving his horse unhitched in the business part of the city.

Rev. D. L. Moody arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Leadville and is stopping at The Antlers.

H. T. O'Brien sold yesterday several sets of his finest double carriage harness, two of which were shipped to Denver.

The city council will meet in regular session to-morrow evening when the appropriations for the coming year will be made.

The Raymond & Whitcomb excursionists left Manitou yesterday for Denver en route east. They were greatly pleased with their stay in Manitou.

All persons interested in organizing a grange are requested to communicate with John E. Pierce, who has authority to perfect such an organization.

The Colorado Springs Athletic Exhibition company has been organized with Frank T. Lent, president; E. C. Goddard, secretary, and G. R. Ford, treasurer.

Manager Nye has booked the Musin Concert company for an entertainment at the opera house a week from to-morrow evening. The organization includes some excellent vocal and instrumental artists.

There were no passenger or freight trains on the Atchison road yesterday on account of the strike. A Midland freight train went north in the afternoon and all the passenger trains on that road were running on time.

Public worship to-day at 4 o'clock at congregational church, Bijou street, opposite Acacia park. Rev. James H. Cree, pastor. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Evening service will be omitted on account of the Moody meetings.

There has been quite a demand for lots in the new town of Granger and a number have already been sold notwithstanding the short time which they have been upon the market. The Rock Island officials have stated that they will make Granger the construction headquarters of the Colorado extension.

Yesterday Messrs. Holden, Cline and Guggenheim visited their smelter site at Colorado City and returned to Denver on the Midland train in the afternoon. The Denver and Rio Grande corps of surveyors, now in the city, were kept busy the entire day in surveying and locating the ground for the tracks, sidings, etc.

Mr. Frank White, formerly of Albany, N. Y., and Frank J. Bobbs, lately with the First National bank, have opened a real estate office in the new block on Pike's Peak avenue. They are both enterprising young men, having a large circle of friends here, and we bespeak for them a large patronage. See their advertisement in our columns this morning.

To-day Mr. Moody will hold three services in the opera house, at 9 a. m. and and at 4.30 and 7.30 p. m., respectively. The morning service will be for Christian workers, that in the afternoon for women only, and that in the evening for the public generally. In the evening, in case the opera house will not accommodate all who desire to hear Mr. Moody, an overflow meeting will be held at the First Methodist church, which will be addressed by Mr. Moody after he has finished speaking at the opera house. Revs. Black and Kieffer have been appointed a finance committee and all who desire to contribute defraying the expenses of the meeting can hand their contribution to this committee. Gospel Hymns No. 5 will be used in the services, copies of which can be procured in the lobby of the opera house. Members of the chorus are requested to enter the building by the stage door.

ADVERTISING

Rates made known on application to the office

JOB WORK

Facilities for Plain and Fancy Job Printing equal to those of any establishment west of the Mississippi river.

All persons having advertisements in the paper and desiring a YEARLY contract will please make it known at the business office, where they will be met fairly and squarely. We have no bold outside type to catch the eye, and what is contained in the paper unless notice is thus given.

No claims are allowed against changes of the GAZETTE to effect any of our contracts.

All [illegible] must be handed in not later than Saturday noon

Advertising agents are respectfully notified that we do not want any advertising from them.

S. W. STORRS,
Manager of the Gazette.

The Leadville Herald Democrat thinks the suggestion of sending the best men to the national convention is good sense but not good politics This is probably true But we might follow precedent and ordinary politics in the selection of the delegates at large or four of the six As we have only one congressman, only two should be selected for territorial reasons The other four should represent the whole state

No letter of Grant's published for some time has been read with greater pleasure than his reply to Badeau's petition for an interest in his "Memoirs." Badeau would undoubtedly have claimed not only the credit for the literary work but also a good deal of credit for Grant's military success He is an unmitigated humbug His letters of late have been exceedingly offensive When writing about Sumner Grant Motley and others, he has given the impression that these men were of importance simply because they had been in some way connected with him

The Sunday edition of the GAZETTE is rapidly growing in favor The paper is not so large as those published in Denver but the Denver papers are largely made up of matter clipped from other papers. We publish a far greater proportion of original matter for our paper than is published in any other paper in the state Advertisers are beginning to realize the value of special advertising [illegible] of the paper for advertising which is yielding good results is the line advertising in the business locals. Every merchant should have a special advertisement of at least five to ten lines in this paper

The Glenwood News is mistaken regarding our position on the strike. We are not opposed to organized labor, but we are opposed to any small clique of men acting as the Burlington engineers are They have thrown out of employment thousands of other workingmen They have abandoned freight and passenger trains and by so doing have not injured the Burlington, but the shipper or passenger They have also ordered other roads to violate the law and not take Burlington freight. This has affected the shipper more than the railroad There are hundreds of cars in Denver that the Denver and Rio Grande road is not allowed to haul here and elsewhere simply because they were hauled into Denver by the Burlington Such tyrannical conduct does not help the engineers, for the shippers recognize the engineers as at fault in this matter They have no right to make the public suffer unnecessarily Nor have they a right to demand that other railroads shall not be neutral

The Hawaiian Harbor

SAN FRANCISCO March 19—Information has reached here from Honolulu that an examination of Pearl river bay on the Hawaiian island has been completed by a force of United States engineers It is stated that estimates and plans which have been sent to Washington convey the information that it will cost $7,000 000 to make the entrance and [illegible] the new cruisers now to be constructed by the United States. It is understood that congress is urged to appropriate that amount Hawaiian papers speak well of the project It is understood in Honolulu that the cession of the harbor is virtually forever

Mme. Modjeska's First Critics

When the Hilt company had been out for a year a manager from one of the larger towns called upon Modjeska and offered to engage her for his own theatre The opportunity seemed a good one and she accepted it She was put into operetta, played ingenue parts, and she believes that she obtained here some of the most valued teaching she ever received, although it happened in an odd way. The gallery audience was composed chiefly of university students For this place in the house large rectal entrance tickets were provided, on which a piece of paper was pasted. These tickets were retained during the performance, and the young fellows had a habit of writing critical remarks upon the paper These were given up when they went out, and in the morning actors and actresses would go into the office to read the remarks made by their censors After Modjeska's first appearance in operetta she found written on one of these tablets "Will Mme. Modjeska please not to sing, or, if she will sing not to sing so much out of tune as she did last night? Because, if she does, next time we shall hiss."

On another morning after she had acted in a drama, this was the polite request "Please, Mme. Modjeska, will you kindly take the trouble to pronounce well the ends of your sentences, as you speak them the effect is as if we were deaf, and I am sure we are not deaf" On another occasion they wrote "Why do you go in that corner of the stage and remain there so long without moving? It would be better if Mme Modjeska would not use her hands so much for they are too thin, and the effect is not pretty" All these suggestions were taken in good part and many of the hints being useful, the result was steady improvement Modjeska at this time was playing in boy s parts almost entirely, at a salary of less than $20 a month.—Dramatic Times.
